Description

he Trianon wedding dress is a sculptural revelation in radiant satin, defined by a meticulously tailored princess-seam bodice and clean off-the-shoulder neckline. An asymmetrically draped sheath skirt creates a dynamic pulse, revealing a subtle skirt slit for a touch of modern, unfettered freedom. The traditional lace-up corset back ensures a precision fit, balancing the gown’s sharp architectural lines with a stately, grounded poise. A detachable neck scarf and sweeping train offer a transformative versatility, allowing the look to shift from a structured statement to a breezy, wind-swept vision. Every fold of the satin reflects a quiet glow, capturing the essence of a sophisticated yet effortless radiance.
